Chapter 1 by Eva

Ever since I was born I have loved fire and been so fascinated by it. I have never been burnt because I have seen the effects it has on peoples body, but another reason why is because my parents say fire is dangerous and cause lots of problems such as can hurt people, can burn down houses, kill animals and it ruins nature. One night I went to my friends house and we had a bonfire, I was roasting a marsh-mellow and the flame quickly licked my finger. I dropped the marsh-mellow stick and wailed, then shivered, spun around and my eyes flashed. I went back to normal but then I walked towards the fire and walked through it, I disappeared. Every one thought that I had been burnt but it turned out that I had a power that had never been heard of before and it changed my life, the....

fire power!
